We Care with Passion

Mr. Boediono, the former Vice President of Indonesia, was given an opening speech at The 13th IICD Corporate Governance Award 2022

This award that SAME received has significant value and impact on the SAME Group and its team members in order to give their best efforts in complying with applicable laws and regulations and implementing good corporate governance practices.

Who is IICD?

Quoting from their Company Profile, the Indonesian Institute for Corporate Directorship (IICD) is a non-profit organization founded by 10 highly reputable Indonesian Business Schools and preeminent individuals. Since its inception in 2000, IICD which envisioned "Internalizing Best Practices of Good Corporate Governance and Directorship" has been actively working on Seminars, Training, Panel Discussions, Curriculum Design, Consulting, and Research activities on GCG and Directorship.

SAME understands that the Corporate Governance Award which has been held by IICD for 13 consecutive years is part of IICD's efforts to improve and enhance the implementation of good corporate governance practices in Indonesia.

Through this award, SAME is encouraged to implement the principles of good corporate governance even more in order to improve the performance and image of the company.
